Junior Varsity Synopsis

Coach Keith Schafer said, "It was a most encouraging season," when asked about the 1966 Junior Varsity. He said it also was the most consistent season he could remember. Their record was 3-6. "We were in each game and three of our losses were only by one touchdown." The Coach also reminded that the team had come a long way despite losing Quarterback Bill Scheller to the Varsity.

"Whether we won or lost, each of the boys were willing players." Coach Schafer listed good candidates for next year's Varsity: D. Leuer, L. Stemmer, B. Simmons, R. McDermott, P. Titcomb, S. Jenson, R. Swenson, R. Morris, D. Goodmanson, and G. Hamilton.

B-Squad Synopsis

The Trojan B-Squad had a dismal season with a 0-9 record, but much was gained by experience. This can be put to good use next year on the Varsity and Junior Varsity teams.

Larry Hines gained a lot of yardage and showed good hard running. Allan Hannura and Allan Faue quarterbacked the team. Other B-Squad members who will be key players in next year's teams are: C. Martwig, D. Hunz, J. Stender, R. Bowman, J. Darby, and M. Carlson.
